DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 6, the phrase "annular spare tire" is confusing as it is unclear how it relates to previously recited two annular spare tires recited above.

In claim 1, line 7, the phrase "spare tire blocks" is confusing as it is unclear how it relates to previously recited a plurality of spare tire blocks recited above. Similar problem exists with the recitation of spare tire blocks in line 12.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claim 1 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

None of the references of record suggests a tire reinforcing arrangement comprising a plurality of stretchers respectively stopped between annular spare tires, said stretchers each having two end lugs respectively stopped against said annular spare tires, wherein a U-shaped middle part and a rubber is bonded to said U-shaped middle part in the manner defined in the instant claim 1 and in combination with other limitations of the claim.

Conclusion

Art Unit: 3617

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:

Glinz et al, Rolla, Chang are cited to show related tire reinforcing arrangement comprising inner blocks.
